Dear Maria,

Subject: Yield Instrument Investment: Overview and Next Steps

Thank you for your interest in the Yield Instrument that Oksana brought to your attention. I believe this investment opportunity has exceptional potential, and I would be grateful if you could share this with your network!

Since it was first made available to the retail market in October, the first instrument was fully subscribed in less than 60 days. I am confident that this note will be fully subscribed before the end of February.

Here's a link to my presentation on the instrument: Watch here. Additionally, I've included a short teaser reel for your reference: Watch the teaser.

These resources provide a comprehensive overview of how the Yield Instrument works and its benefits for investors. If you find this opportunity interesting, I would be happy to organize an affiliate link for you to share with your clients. Any referrals that onboard through your link will earn you commissions.

I also specialize in investment properties in the UK, Portugal, and UAE, as well as Citizenship and Residency programs worldwide. If you're interested, I can certainly provide you with more information on these offerings.

However, let's prioritize the Yield Instrument, as it's performing remarkably well.

Looking forward to your thoughts!

Warm regards,

John Sparks
